

Nondiscrimination Notice

The Parkland Center for Clinical Innovation (PCCI) does not exclude, deny benefits to, or otherwise discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, sex, or age in admission to, participation in, or receipt of the services and benefits under the Accountable Health Communities grant, whether grant activities are carried out by PCCI directly or through a contractor or any other entity with which PCCI arranges to carry out its programs and activities.

PCCI is committed to making its Accountable Health Communities programs, benefits, services, facilities, information, and technology accessible, and our customers have the right to receive program materials in an accessible format. To request materials in an accessible format, you may email us at DallasAHC@pccipieces.org or call or write us at the phone number/address above, Attention: AHC Engagement Manager.

How to file a complaint

If you believe you've been subjected to discrimination in an Accountable Health Communities program or activity administered by PCCI, there are 3 ways to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights:

1. Online
2. By phone: Call 1-800-368-1019. TDD users should call 1-800-537-7697.
3. In writing: Send information about your complaint to:
4. Office for Civil Rights
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
200 Independence Avenue, SW
Room 509F, HHH Building
Washington, D.C. 20201